

New York Store

Established 1853.

Millinery
Bicycle Suits
Parasol
Ribbon
Wash Goods
Boys' Clothing
Comfort
And a Dozen Other

SALES

HERE

TO-DAY

Pettis Dry Goods Co.

Moved from Denison Hotel to Pennsylvania and Market Sts.
opposite P. O. over Pomeroy's
Drug Store.

COUGHLIN & WILSON.

A. E. BUCHANAN.

DENTIST.

22 and 23 When Block. Opp. Postoffice

Grades of Mediocrity

Are common among flours—few of highest merit.

PRINCESS Flour is the bread maker par excellence.

ROYAL

Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tartar baking powder, the highest of all in leavening strength—Largest United States Government Food Powder.

ROYAL Baking Powder Co., New York.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY.

Miss Teeters, of Broadway, gave a musical last evening.

Mrs. Robertson and Mrs. Carolyn Robertson, of New York, visited in Chicago Monday.

Mrs. and Miss Watson and Miss Klumpenberger returned yesterday from a visit to New York.

Miss Frances Palmer, of Chicago, is visiting Miss Percy Walker, on North Capitol avenue.

Miss Florence Coffin, who is visiting Mrs. Henry Vinton, in Lafayette, is expected home Monday.

Miss Katharine Beeson, of Lafayette, is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Hobbs and Miss Martha Beeson.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bradshaw, of New York, will come to visit Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bradshaw.

Mr. Harris Walcott has gone to New York City, N. Y., to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Walcott, for several weeks.

Miss Sarah Meigs's pupils in music will give a recital at the home of Mrs. Benjamin D. Walcott, a week from this afternoon.

The closing party of the older pupils of Mr. D. H. Brenneke will be given this evening at the academy, on North Illinois street.

Mrs. Charles E. Kregolo will go to Loganport Wednesday to visit her sister, before returning to her home in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. John Morris, who has been spending the last six months with her daughter, Mrs. George Brown, at Norfolk, Va., has returned home.

Mrs. Henderson, of California, has arrived to visit her sister, Mrs. V. K. Hendricks, who is in Chicago.

Miss Mary Potter, daughter of Rev. Dr. Potter, president of Glendale College, spent last Sunday here, visiting her brothers, Dr. Thomas C. and Theodore Potter.

Col. and Mrs. J. N. Walker are expected home from California next week. A large reception will be given to them in Chicago Monday evening, at one of the hotels.

Mrs. Oliver P. Morton left yesterday for Chicago, where she will reside. She went earlier than at first intended, on account of the illness of her son, Mr. Oliver T. Morton.

Mrs. Charles E. Kregolo was the guest of Mrs. H. A. Bingham, Mrs. Bingham and daughter will go to Massachusetts in a short time to spend the summer with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Daniels entertained a few friends last evening at their home, on North Pennsylvania street. During the evening Mr. Lewis Howland read a paper which he recently read before one of the literary clubs.

A successful concert was given last evening at Fletcher-place Church. Mr. F. M. Plaque, an expert whistler, and banjo player, Mrs. Evans, also, and Mrs. Nell Sartorius, participated in an enjoyable program.

Invitations have been issued by the Shakespeare Club for a reception to Dr. H. A. Cleveland, at Plymouth Church, Friday evening, May 2, at 8 o'clock. Dr. Cleveland will deliver an address, "An Evening with Shakespeare," at the close of which the reception will be given in the church parlors.

The King's Daughters gave a musical evening at Plymouth Church last night, which was attended by large numbers of young people. A programme of music was presented by Mrs. Marie Leathers Clevenger, Mrs. Harry Clevenger, Mrs. F. E. Dewhurst, Miss Galvin, Miss Brown and Mrs. Alice Fleming Evans.

There will be many parties this afternoon, given by the King's Daughters at the Second Presbyterian Church, by the Ministering Children at St. Paul's Church, by the King's Daughters at Plymouth Church, and by the Y. P. C. E. at Central-avenue Church.

Attractive and appropriate programmes have been arranged for each place.

Miss Anna Eds will give a dinner a week from this evening to the bride and bridegroom at the residence of Mrs. A. Gray, at 220 North Pennsylvania street.

A large number of guests from Louisville, Ky.; Miss Rose Morris and Mrs. W. Henderson, of Ashland, Ky.; Mr. Frank Van Winkle, of Cincinnati; Miss Clara Lou Egan, of Paris, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, of Cincinnati, and Rev. W. F. Taylor, of Danville, Ky.

Yesterday was guest day at the Woman's Club, and the east party of the Proprietary was filled with members and their friends, it being the last guest day of the season. The papers of the afternoon were unusually interesting. Mrs. H. C. Martin read of "New England Towns Fifty Years Ago," and in addition to the charm of the paper, Mrs. Martin sent to Massachusetts and had a great box of traveling artesian water to her, and the residents of the room were given to each one present. The second paper was "Boston's New City," by Mrs. J. M. Smith. The conversation following was general, and several gentlemen, who were part of the interested listeners, took part.

A May day reception was given last evening at the First Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. Henry Coe and Mrs. A. L. Roache, who were hostesses for the entertaining session.

CLAWED AND CHAWED

TIGERS LEAPED ON PHILLIPS AND FORCED HIM TO RETIRE.

Hooters Beaten at Detroit—Four Errors by McCormick—Hogan's Release Purchased from St. Louis.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

How Western League Clubs Stand.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Standing of National League Clubs.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Games Scheduled for To-Day.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KOKOMO, Ind., May 1.—Mr. Peter E. Hoss, manufacturer and real-estate dealer of this city, and Miss Flora Smith, of Piqua, were married at the home of Mrs. Hoss Tuesday. They will reside in this city.

SHOT WITHOUT TRIAL

MANY CUBANS BUTCHERED BY GENERAL WEYLER'S TROOPS.

Long List of Victims in One Small Farming District—Recent Battles—Honor as to Gomez.

NEW YORK, May 1.—A special to the World from Havana, Cuba, says: "Your correspondent has personally investigated the deaths of the following peaceable white men, who were shot without trial at Campo Florida, near Havana, recently: Margarito Zarzas, aged twenty-four years, single, blacksmith; Joaquin Medina, aged forty-five years, married, farmer; Camilo Cajas, aged twenty-five years, single, fisherman; Jose Iselas, aged twenty-eight years, married, fisherman; Manuel Martinez, aged thirty-eight years, married, farmer; Domingo Laguarda, aged sixty-five years, single, native of Montevideo, Uruguay; Jesus Ochoa Rodriguez, aged twenty-five years, single, blacksmith.

Between April 11 and 22, the following peaceful inhabitants were taken from their homes and shot on the Florida road, between Campo Florida and Minas: Jose Velez, a farmer's boy, fourteen years old; V. Collina, aged forty-five years, married, merchant; Caballin, aged forty-five years, married, merchant; Benigno Saenz, aged fifty-seven years, married, fisherman; Roberto, aged forty-six years, married, farmer; Inocente Rabell, forty years, married, cheesemaker; Roberto, aged forty-five years, married, farmer. The victims were all white. Their bodies were thrown into a huge sugar boiler, which lies half buried on the roadside on the land owned by J. Cabrera.

"Here is a list of white men shot without trial in the same neighborhood, opposite the Jesus Maria grocery store, on the Arango estate: Martin Soza, single, farmer; Andres Guillama and his assistants, both married and farmers; Francisco Diaz and son, farmers; Leonardo Llerenas, farmer; Luis Gonsalves, son, farmer; Cardina Diaz, farmer; Francisco Ferrer, farmer; Benito Bueno, farmer; Julio Hernandez, father of twelve children, farmer; Abelardo Cariera, farmer, and three others, names unknown. Most of these were shot on the Florida road.

"The following combatants were also shot without trial and thrust into the sugar boiler on the highway to Minas: A mulatto, seventy-one years old; Timoteo Ceferrino, son of the foregoing, aged seventeen; Estrella, aged forty-five years, married, arrested on his way to Havana market; Matias Darias; Juan Machina, married, farmer.

"Your correspondent has confined his list to the names of the peaceful inhabitants of Havana. The same stories come from all parts of the island. Nothing has been seen without investigation. No wonder foreign correspondents are not allowed to accompany the army, and are nearly all bolted up in Havana."

AS TOLD BY SPANIARDS.

Press Censor Accounts of Battles and Outrages in Cuba.

HAVANA, May 1.—General Bernal has met numerous bands of insurgents in the mountains of San Cristobal, province of Pinar del Rio. He engaged a large band commanded by Perico Saenz, and although the enemy vastly outnumbered the Spanish force, the insurgents were routed and the loss of three killed, and left seven prisoners in the hands of the troops. The latter pursued the band and overtook them between Minas and Villas. In the engagement which followed the insurgents were routed, and left twelve killed and five wounded on the field. General Bernal always commands his troops in person and is to be found in the front.

A notable act of barbarity on the part of the insurgents is reported from the village of San Juan de Siquiera. The insurgents took a man named Julian Hernandez and hanged him three times to a tree, in each case taking him down before he was dead.

The man's neck is said to be so terribly swollen that he is experiencing great difficulty in eating. The insurgents are also alleged to have killed with machetes a man named Pedro Obregon, who was eighty years of age.

In a skirmish between a detachment of the Leon Battalion, commanded by Colonel Reca, near Jaracua, province of Santiago de Cuba, and a band of insurgents, four of the latter were killed. The troops pursued the enemy, and in another fight at Triunfo plantation, seven insurgents were killed and the survivors retired with many wounded. Two soldiers were killed, and three officers and twenty soldiers were wounded.

The Rev. Baltazar, of Cruz Roja, las Ramon, met the insurgents led by Lacer, five of them were killed. The troops had three men wounded. Before this engagement the insurgents buried four men, killed in a previous skirmish, in a neighboring swamp.

The newspaper has been coming out in the displeasure of the captain general. El Pais, a daily, has been fined for a editorial, which it is charged, belittles the prestige of the army. La Discusion was fined, also, for having reproduced the article of yesterday's edition of the "Diario de la Noche," which it was charged, belittled the authorities. The Diario de la Noche, which has been the publication of an unparliamentary editorial.

There has been a mystery attaching to one of the filibusters on board the schooner Competitor, who persistently refused to give his name. It is known that he is a Cuban, and is a member of the party, that he is a well-known adventurer.

Sixteen political prisoners were sent to Spain yesterday. They were taken from the plantations belonging to a major of volunteers.

In the neighborhood of San Cristobal, in Pinar del Rio, the insurgents continue the burning of all country houses and huts. Over five hundred persons have taken refuge in the town, and a great number of families have fled to the mountains.

Complaints with one hundred barrels of tobacco, and also the plantation of Los Pinos and La Yndia, have been burned.

Gomez Marching on Havana.

NEW YORK, May 1.—A special to the World from Havana says: "General Gomez is reported to be in Matanzas province with over ten thousand men heading towards Havana."

WATCH STOLEN AT G. F. ADAMS'S

Found on a Louisville Crook Arrested at New Albany.

A special to the Journal last night from New Albany states that a "crook" named "Laughey" was arrested there last night, as they left an excursion train, on suspicion of being pickpockets. They were searched, and in Carr's pocket was found a gold watch which was stolen April 11 from the residence of George F. Adams, at 220 East New York street, Indianapolis.

The watch bears the inscription "Eliza R. Adams, May 2, 1895. Carr also was a ring on the inside of which were the initials L. W.

Captain Dawson, the officer in charge at the police station last night, said that no further action concerning the arrest of "Laughey" Carr and his accomplices had been received.

CLAWED AND CHAWED

TIGERS LEAPED ON PHILLIPS AND FORCED HIM TO RETIRE.

Hooters Beaten at Detroit—Four Errors by McCormick—Hogan's Release Purchased from St. Louis.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

How Western League Clubs Stand.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Standing of National League Clubs.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Games Scheduled for To-Day.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KOKOMO, Ind., May 1.—Mr. Peter E. Hoss, manufacturer and real-estate dealer of this city, and Miss Flora Smith, of Piqua, were married at the home of Mrs. Hoss Tuesday. They will reside in this city.

SHOT WITHOUT TRIAL

MANY CUBANS BUTCHERED BY GENERAL WEYLER'S TROOPS.

Long List of Victims in One Small Farming District—Recent Battles—Honor as to Gomez.

NEW YORK, May 1.—A special to the World from Havana, Cuba, says: "Your correspondent has personally investigated the deaths of the following peaceable white men, who were shot without trial at Campo Florida, near Havana, recently: Margarito Zarzas, aged twenty-four years, single, blacksmith; Joaquin Medina, aged forty-five years, married, farmer; Camilo Cajas, aged twenty-five years, single, fisherman; Jose Iselas, aged twenty-eight years, married, fisherman; Manuel Martinez, aged thirty-eight years, married, farmer; Domingo Laguarda, aged sixty-five years, single, native of Montevideo, Uruguay; Jesus Ochoa Rodriguez, aged twenty-five years, single, blacksmith.

Between April 11 and 22, the following peaceful inhabitants were taken from their homes and shot on the Florida road, between Campo Florida and Minas: Jose Velez, a farmer's boy, fourteen years old; V. Collina, aged forty-five years, married, merchant; Caballin, aged forty-five years, married, merchant; Benigno Saenz, aged fifty-seven years, married, fisherman; Roberto, aged forty-six years, married, farmer; Inocente Rabell, forty years, married, cheesemaker; Roberto, aged forty-five years, married, farmer. The victims were all white. Their bodies were thrown into a huge sugar boiler, which lies half buried on the roadside on the land owned by J. Cabrera.

"Here is a list of white men shot without trial in the same neighborhood, opposite the Jesus Maria grocery store, on the Arango estate: Martin Soza, single, farmer; Andres Guillama and his assistants, both married and farmers; Francisco Diaz and son, farmers; Leonardo Llerenas, farmer; Luis Gonsalves, son, farmer; Cardina Diaz, farmer; Francisco Ferrer, farmer; Benito Bueno, farmer; Julio Hernandez, father of twelve children, farmer; Abelardo Cariera, farmer, and three others, names unknown. Most of these were shot on the Florida road.

"The following combatants were also shot without trial and thrust into the sugar boiler on the highway to Minas: A mulatto, seventy-one years old; Timoteo Ceferrino, son of the foregoing, aged seventeen; Estrella, aged forty-five years, married, arrested on his way to Havana market; Matias Darias; Juan Machina, married, farmer.

"Your correspondent has confined his list to the names of the peaceful inhabitants of Havana. The same stories come from all parts of the island. Nothing has been seen without investigation. No wonder foreign correspondents are not allowed to accompany the army, and are nearly all bolted up in Havana."

AS TOLD BY SPANIARDS.

Press Censor Accounts of Battles and Outrages in Cuba.

HAVANA, May 1.—General Bernal has met numerous bands of insurgents in the mountains of San Cristobal, province of Pinar del Rio. He engaged a large band commanded by Perico Saenz, and although the enemy vastly outnumbered the Spanish force, the insurgents were routed and the loss of three killed, and left seven prisoners in the hands of the troops. The latter pursued the band and overtook them between Minas and Villas. In the engagement which followed the insurgents were routed, and left twelve killed and five wounded on the field. General Bernal always commands his troops in person and is to be found in the front.

A notable act of barbarity on the part of the insurgents is reported from the village of San Juan de Siquiera. The insurgents took a man named Julian Hernandez and hanged him three times to a tree, in each case taking him down before he was dead.

The man's neck is said to be so terribly swollen that he is experiencing great difficulty in eating. The insurgents are also alleged to have killed with machetes a man named Pedro Obregon, who was eighty years of age.

In a skirmish between a detachment of the Leon Battalion, commanded by Colonel Reca, near Jaracua, province of Santiago de Cuba, and a band of insurgents, four of the latter were killed. The troops pursued the enemy, and in another fight at Triunfo plantation, seven insurgents were killed and the survivors retired with many wounded. Two soldiers were killed, and three officers and twenty soldiers were wounded.

The Rev. Baltazar, of Cruz Roja, las Ramon, met the insurgents led by Lacer, five of them were killed. The troops had three men wounded. Before this engagement the insurgents buried four men, killed in a previous skirmish, in a neighboring swamp.

The newspaper has been coming out in the displeasure of the captain general. El Pais, a daily, has been fined for a editorial, which it is charged, belittles the prestige of the army. La Discusion was fined, also, for having reproduced the article of yesterday's edition of the "Diario de la Noche," which it was charged, belittled the authorities. The Diario de la Noche, which has been the publication of an unparliamentary editorial.

There has been a mystery attaching to one of the filibusters on board the schooner Competitor, who persistently refused to give his name. It is known that he is a Cuban, and is a member of the party, that he is a well-known adventurer.

Sixteen political prisoners were sent to Spain yesterday. They were taken from the plantations belonging to a major of volunteers.

In the neighborhood of San Cristobal, in Pinar del Rio, the insurgents continue the burning of all country houses and huts. Over five hundred persons have taken refuge in the town, and a great number of families have fled to the mountains.

Complaints with one hundred barrels of tobacco, and also the plantation of Los Pinos and La Yndia, have been burned.

Gomez Marching on Havana.

NEW YORK, May 1.—A special to the World from Havana says: "General Gomez is reported to be in Matanzas province with over ten thousand men heading towards Havana."

WATCH STOLEN AT G. F. ADAMS'S

Found on a Louisville Crook Arrested at New Albany.

A special to the Journal last night from New Albany states that a "crook" named "Laughey" was arrested there last night, as they left an excursion train, on suspicion of being pickpockets. They were searched, and in Carr's pocket was found a gold watch which was stolen April 11 from the residence of George F. Adams, at 220 East New York street, Indianapolis.

The watch bears the inscription "Eliza R. Adams, May 2, 1895. Carr also was a ring on the inside of which were the initials L. W.

Captain Dawson, the officer in charge at the police station last night, said that no further action concerning the arrest of "Laughey" Carr and his accomplices had been received.

CLAWED AND CHAWED

TIGERS LEAPED ON PHILLIPS AND FORCED HIM TO RETIRE.

Hooters Beaten at Detroit—Four Errors by McCormick—Hogan's Release Purchased from St. Louis.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

How Western League Clubs Stand.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Standing of National League Clubs.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Games Scheduled for To-Day.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KOKOMO, Ind., May 1.—Mr. Peter E. Hoss, manufacturer and real-estate dealer of this city, and Miss Flora Smith, of Piqua, were married at the home of Mrs. Hoss Tuesday. They will reside in this city.

SHOT WITHOUT TRIAL

MANY CUBANS BUTCHERED BY GENERAL WEYLER'S TROOPS.

Long List of Victims in One Small Farming District—Recent Battles—Honor as to Gomez.

NEW YORK, May 1.—A special to the World from Havana, Cuba, says: "Your correspondent has personally investigated the deaths of the following peaceable white men, who were shot without trial at Campo Florida, near Havana, recently: Margarito Zarzas, aged twenty-four years, single, blacksmith; Joaquin Medina, aged forty-five years, married, farmer; Camilo Cajas, aged twenty-five years, single, fisherman; Jose Iselas, aged twenty-eight years, married, fisherman; Manuel Martinez, aged thirty-eight years, married, farmer; Domingo Laguarda, aged sixty-five years, single, native of Montevideo, Uruguay; Jesus Ochoa Rodriguez, aged twenty-five years, single, blacksmith.

Between April 11 and 22, the following peaceful inhabitants were taken from their homes and shot on the Florida road, between Campo Florida and Minas: Jose Velez, a farmer's boy, fourteen years old; V. Collina, aged forty-five years, married, merchant; Caballin, aged forty-five years, married, merchant; Benigno Saenz, aged fifty-seven years, married, fisherman; Roberto, aged forty-six years, married, farmer; Inocente Rabell, forty years, married, cheesemaker; Roberto, aged forty-five years, married, farmer. The victims were all white. Their bodies were thrown into a huge sugar boiler, which lies half buried on the roadside on the land owned by J. Cabrera.

"Here is a list of white men shot without trial in the same neighborhood, opposite the Jesus Maria grocery store, on the Arango estate: Martin Soza, single, farmer; Andres Guillama and his assistants, both married and farmers; Francisco Diaz and son, farmers; Leonardo Llerenas, farmer; Luis Gonsalves, son, farmer; Cardina Diaz, farmer; Francisco Ferrer, farmer; Benito Bueno, farmer; Julio Hernandez, father of twelve children, farmer; Abelardo Cariera, farmer, and three others, names unknown. Most of these were shot on the Florida road.

"The following combatants were also shot without trial and thrust into the sugar boiler on the highway to Minas: A mulatto, seventy-one years old; Timoteo Ceferrino, son of the foregoing, aged seventeen; Estrella, aged forty-five years, married, arrested on his way to Havana market; Matias Darias; Juan Machina, married, farmer.

"Your correspondent has confined his list to the names of the peaceful inhabitants of Havana. The same stories come from all parts of the island. Nothing has been seen without investigation. No wonder foreign correspondents are not allowed to accompany the army, and are nearly all bolted up in Havana."

AS TOLD BY SPANIARDS.

Press Censor Accounts of Battles and Outrages in Cuba.

HAVANA, May 1.—General Bernal has met numerous bands of insurgents in the mountains of San Cristobal, province of Pinar del Rio. He engaged a large band commanded by Perico Saenz, and although the enemy vastly outnumbered the Spanish force, the insurgents were routed and the loss of three killed, and left seven prisoners in the hands of the troops. The latter pursued the band and overtook them between Minas and Villas. In the engagement which followed the insurgents were routed, and left twelve killed and five wounded on the field. General Bernal always commands his troops in person and is to be found in the front.

A notable act of barbarity on the part of the insurgents is reported from the village of San Juan de Siquiera. The insurgents took a man named Julian Hernandez and hanged him three times to a tree, in each case taking him down before he was dead.

The man's neck is said to be so terribly swollen that he is experiencing great difficulty in eating. The insurgents are also alleged to have killed with machetes a man named Pedro Obregon, who was eighty years of age.

In a skirmish between a detachment of the Leon Battalion, commanded by Colonel Reca, near Jaracua, province of Santiago de Cuba, and a band of insurgents, four of the latter were killed. The troops pursued the enemy, and in another fight at Triunfo plantation, seven insurgents were killed and the survivors retired with many wounded. Two soldiers were killed, and three officers and twenty soldiers were wounded.

The Rev. Baltazar, of Cruz Roja, las Ramon, met the insurgents led by Lacer, five of them were killed. The troops had three men wounded. Before this engagement the insurgents buried four men, killed in a previous skirmish, in a neighboring swamp.

The newspaper has been coming out in the displeasure of the captain general. El Pais, a daily, has been fined for a editorial, which it is charged, belittles the prestige of the army. La Discusion was fined, also, for having reproduced the article of yesterday's edition of the "Diario de la Noche," which it was charged, belittled the authorities. The Diario de la Noche, which has been the publication of an unparliamentary editorial.

There has been a mystery attaching to one of the filibusters on board the schooner Competitor, who persistently refused to give his name. It is known that he is a Cuban, and is a member of the party, that he is a well-known adventurer.

Sixteen political prisoners were sent to Spain yesterday. They were taken from the plantations belonging to a major of volunteers.

In the neighborhood of San Cristobal, in Pinar del Rio, the insurgents continue the burning of all country houses and huts. Over five hundred persons have taken refuge in the town, and a great number of families have fled to the mountains.

Complaints with one hundred barrels of tobacco, and also the plantation of Los Pinos and La Yndia, have been burned.

Gomez Marching on Havana.

NEW YORK, May 1.—A special to the World from Havana says: "General Gomez is reported to be in Matanzas province with over ten thousand men heading towards Havana."

WATCH STOLEN AT G. F. ADAMS'S

Found on a Louisville Crook Arrested at New Albany.

A special to the Journal last night from New Albany states that a "crook" named "Laughey" was arrested there last night, as they left an excursion train, on suspicion of being pickpockets. They were searched, and in Carr's pocket was found a gold watch which was stolen April 11 from the residence of George F. Adams, at 220 East New York street, Indianapolis.

The watch bears the inscription "Eliza R. Adams, May 2, 1895. Carr also was a ring on the inside of which were the initials L. W.

Captain Dawson, the officer in charge at the police station last night, said that no further action concerning the arrest of "Laughey" Carr and his accomplices had been received.

CLAWED AND CHAWED

TIGERS LEAPED ON PHILLIPS AND FORCED HIM TO RETIRE.

Hooters Beaten at Detroit—Four Errors by McCormick—Hogan's Release Purchased from St. Louis.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

How Western League Clubs Stand.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Standing of National League Clubs.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Games Scheduled for To-Day.

Detroit, May 1.—Indianaapolis... 6
Columbus... 12—Grand Rapids... 8
Milwaukee... 8—Minneapolis... 5
St. Paul... 9—Kansas City... 0

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KOKOMO, Ind., May 1.—Mr. Peter E. Hoss, manufacturer and real-estate dealer of this city, and Miss Flora Smith, of Piqua, were married at the home of Mrs. Hoss Tuesday. They will reside in this city.

SHOT WITHOUT TRIAL

MANY CUBANS BUTCHERED BY GENERAL WEYLER'S TROOPS